1. At 1800 on 21 July 1955, a column entered the Reuss Kaserne (8141) in Gera from the direction of Langenberg. It consisted of 12 YA-12 armored scout cars towing 12 presumably 122-mm field guns, 1 jeep, 6 trucks, 2 trucks, each towing a field kitchen, and 2 ambulances. The vehicles carried some 150 soldiers who wore red-bordered black epaulets. <sup>1</sup>

3. On 28 July, ammunition was shipped to the station by trucks                      while 3 small guns of an undetermined type were being loaded. It was learned that during the night of 27/28 July, 8 x 152-mm gun howitzers had been entrained. The following loadings were observed on 29 July: 1830. Twelve 152-mm gun howitzers, 16 prime movers, 8 trucks and 1 ambulance. 2115. Eight 100-mm AT guns, 4 guns with protective shields and barrels about 2 meters long, with an estimated caliber of                     , 1 ambulance, 1 radio truck and 1 field kitchen. Each prime mover carried 8 to 10 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets and each truck carried 10 to 12 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets. <sup>3</sup>

1. Comment. While only individual prime movers with guns of the 308th Arty Brig of the XXVIII Gds Mtz Rifle Corps had so far been seen en route to and from the Reuss Kaserne, an entire battalion could be observed entering the installation, according to the present report. The battalion presumably returned from the Zeitz Forest.
